Duty of Care

All staff have a duty to keep young people safe and to protect them from sexual, physical and emotional harm. Children have a right to be safe and to be treated with respect and dignity. All agency staff are expected to take reasonable steps to ensure the safety and well-being of pupils. Failure to do so may be regarded as professional neglect.

STONE SOUP ACADEMY recognises its duty of care to all supply staff and abides by a culture of openness and support.

We ensure that all staff are made aware of our expectations, policies and procedures with regards safeguarding, child protection issues and safe working practices during this period of Covid 19.

At the start of each academic year all staff participate in:-

- Training on the current edition of KCSIE
- Training on safeguarding using Educare

Throughout the academic year

Safeguarding and student welfare training using Educare appropriate to the personalised needs of the cohort.

Support for students using external organisations and counsellors when appropriate.

During induction all newly appointed staff are:

- required to read and agree to our Child Protection Policy
- Required to meet with deputy DSL to go through safeguarding procedures and use of the CPOMs system
- Read the current KCSIE and sign that they have read and understand part 1 and part 2 if applicable to their role.

We require our staff to:

- Immediately report any allegations against staff in line with the Academy Whistleblowing Policy.
- Allegations must be reported to the Chair of Governors if concerning the Principal
 - Allegations must be reported directly to the Principal if concerning a member of staff including supply staff.

STONE SOUP ACADEMY will work closely with all parties involved, including the school, the Local Authority Designated Officer, Social Services and the Police. It will act on any requirements put in place during the process.
